THURSDAY: BGSA Senate Meeting and other BGSA News

The next BGSA Senate Meeting of the semester is scheduled to take place this Thursday, March 25, at 5:00 pm in Braniff 201. The BGSA plays a large role in hosting events and providing professional opportunities for Braniff graduate students. Senate meetings are a great way to learn more and get involved in the community. All Braniff students are invited to attend!

The Braniff Graduate Student Association would like to invite currently enrolled Braniff students working on articles for academic publication to apply for grants to help fund their work. Grants are offered through the BGSA's new Publications Incentives Committee. More information can be found on the BGSA website.

Translation: Appropriation or Appreciation?

Amid concerns about damages wrought by cultural appropriation, how does translation—as a practice and an idea—help us understand the risks and rewards of crossings, borrowings, and interactions between cultures and languages? This panel brings together scholars and translators to address this question and many others. Register here to receive the Zoom link.

Date: Thursday, March 25 at 11 am

Please join us for an interdisciplinary panel on Richard Rothstein's The Color of Law: A Forgotten History of How Our Government Segregated America.

Panelists will include Dr. Carla Pezzia (UD), Dr. Mark Petersen (UD), Dr. Tammy Leonard (UD), Dr. Tobias Winright (Saint Louis University). You must register to receive the Zoom link.

Date: Monday, March 29 at 5 pm

EnCore: Hildegard of Bingen and Tuning the Soul to God with Dr. Eidt

Hildegard of Bingen was a Benedictine Abbess in the 12th century. Her music shows how the macro-cosmos—the whole of the universe, the stars, the planets—is in harmony with the micro-cosmos—the harmony that is the human body and soul. Our job as Christians is to "tune our souls" to the harmony of the cosmos, to the unity of God's will. Join Dr. Jacob-Ivan Eidt, Ph.D. for this discussion. Register here.
